Dear Parents and Carers,

As we approach the Easter break, I wanted to provide a brief update on the recent parent and carer survey. The survey is a vital part of our whole school evaluation and allows for us to hear from parents and carers about what is working well and what areas could be further improved. We had a total of 127 responses and the key findings from this are as follows.

96% of responses highlighted that their son or daughter is happy at school with 97% saying their child feels safe. Only 3% of parents felt that behaviour at the school is not up to par while 2 % feel that the school does not have high expectations. 99% of parents feel that we offer a good range of subjects with 95% of parents feeling their child achieves well at the school. 94% of parents feel SEND support is strong and 95% of parents feel that they are updated by the school on their child's development.

Significantly 98% of parents would recommend the school to another parent and for that we are very grateful.

We have already been in touch with a few parents who asked to be contacted and we again thank everyone who was able to take the time to complete the survey.

Reflecting back on the term, there have been a number of changes that both children and adults have had to adapt to, highlighting everyone's ability to show resilience in challenging times. Our new staff have all settled in well and have really helped contribute to the successes of this term. As the Covid-19 rules have changed we have found ourselves being able to offer more and more for our children and I am really excited about the upcoming summer term and providing the many opportunities we have sadly not been able to do for the last couple of years. We also look forward to welcoming parents and carers to join us and share these great experiences together.

Can I finally thank everyone for your continued support of the school and to wish you all a safe and relaxing Easter Holiday.

Yours sincerely,

Mr R Stevens
